Big Band Music Slated for Lake Accotink

Join in the celebration of America's approaching birthday with the American big band sound of the National Concert Band of America. Their great marches will swell through Lake Accotink Park on Friday, July 6 at 7:30 p.m. for a free concert at the park as part of the Braddock Nights performance series.

Comprised of former and retired military band members, the National Concert Band covers the great American masters of jazz's golden years. Performances feature Wagner, Rossini, Gershwin and Porter alongside an unlimited list of marches from the world's great composers.

The Braddock Nights concert series will continue every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. throughout the summer. Summer performances range from Motown to classical music, providing the community with a diverse celebration of the arts.

Braddock Nights is made possible through the efforts of the Fairfax County Park Authority, the Braddock District Supervisor's Office, Friends of Braddock Nights and the generous support of the business community.

Lake Accotink Park is located at 7500 Accotink Park Road in Springfield. Concerts are canceled for inclement weather. Please call 703-324-SHOW for information including rain cancellations. For a complete schedule, visit us online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances.
